

Avosetta meeting

Krakow, 26-27 May 2017

Venue: Refektarz (Olszewskiego 2) or Sienkiewiczówka (Piłsudskiego 16)

Friday, 26 May 2017

Species protection

09:30 Coffee/tea

10.00 Welcome Barbara Wanska

10.10–10.45 Species protection in EU and introductory discussion

Chair: Massimiliano Montini

Introduction by Ludwig Krämer: Species and EU law

Part I and II of the Questionnaire: legal acts, risk, principles of species protection

10.45–12.00 Conservations of species

Chair: Alexandra Aragao

Part III and IV of Questionnaire: surveillance of conservation status; system of strict protection; the exploitation of species; indiscriminate means of killing; derogations; overlapping between Annexes

12.00 – 12.15 Coffeebreak

12.15-12.45 Enforcement

Chair: Gyula Bándi

Part V of the Questionnaire: legal consequences of infringement of art. 12-16 HD or 5-9 BD

12.45– 13.15 Impact Assessment and species protection

Chair: Gyula Bándi

Part VI of the Questionnaire: SEA, EIA, Appropriate Impact Assessment and species protection

13.15 – 14.30 Lunch

14:30–15.00: Agricultural and forestry activities and species protection

Chair: Peter Pagh

Part VII of the Questionnaire: Agricultural or forestry activities with a foreseeable impact on protected species

15.00 -15.30 The roles of citizens and NGOs in species protection

Chair: Jan Darpö

Part. VIII of the Questionnaire: public participation and access to justice in species protection proceedings.

15.30–16.15 Specious protection outside EU

Chair: Ludwig Krämer

Jan Glazewski: Curtailing the selective and intensive breeding of wildlife in Southern Africa: the role of the Convention on Biodiversity and EU Environmental Law

16.15-16.30 Coffee break

16.30 – 17.30 Final discussion on species protection and initial discussion on the next Avosetta meeting(start discussions about the topic, place for meeting, overall orientation)

Chair: Richard Macrory

17.30 – 19.00 Guided tour (meeting in front of Collegium Novum, Gołębia 24 at 17:30)

19:30 Dinner (Restaurant: Corleone, Poselska 19)

Saturday, 27 May 2017

Environmental implications of the current EU crisis

09:00 – 11.00 Environmental implications of the current EU crisis

Chair: Gerd Winter

Diversification of the EU architecture: experiences and prospects

Richard Macrory on Brexit

Ole Fauchald on EEA

Markus Kern on EFTA

Nükhet Turgut on association and frustrated accession

Jerzy Jendroska and Gyula Bandi on new nationalism

11.00-11.30 Coffee break and continuation of discussion on next Avosetta meeting

Chair: the Host of the next meeting

11.30-13.00 Continuation of discussions about environmental implications of the current EU crisis

Chair: Ludwig Kraemer

Economic challenges

Massimiliano Montini on failures of EU environmental law

Vicky Karageorgou on austerity

Alexandra Aragao on catastrophic climate change effects

Verena Madner on the role of the judiciary in climate protection

Gerd Winter on an emerging climate protection action of children

13.00-14.00Lunch

14.00 Any other business (if need be)